INVOCATION OF SOVEREIGNTY

The Primordial Mother supports me, unconditionally.

Her breath of Spirit quickens my being.

She communicates with me, through dreams.

I am a seed of possibility in the soil of her becoming.

*Vitality, passion, and creativity are mine,
As I own the power held within my core.*

The future beckons me to surrender my past.

This I do, as I identify completely with the path revealed.

I see that the path has only One Heart.

*Signals and signs from many realms
Remind me of my cosmic origins.*

*My heart soars
As guardians and guides present themselves to me.*

Innocently, I surrender my will, to the Will of the Creator.

Abundance floods into my life as I empty myself to receive.

*May the pillar of my life honor this abundance.
May it serve to unite both Heaven and Earth.*
